

Jan 26th 1843. had a good time, while there playing games every evening Very cold today, but lovely winter weather, games again tonight, enjoying ourselves very much having all the fun possible with Robert Washburn who is ~~working~~^{working} at all.

Fri, 27.
Sat, 28. Rough stormy morning, snowing and blowing most all day. games again tonight Bob Washburn bursted his pants hopping toad fashion across the floor, but he went on with the game with a little coaxing.

Sund 29. January thaw, Raining today snow going rapidly, very heavy rain most all day, cold to night.

Mon, 30. Very fine this morning but cold clouding over about noon, wind east, very disagreeable driving

Jan 30th 1843.
for Ingers and I drove out to Colebrook expecting to see some trapping on the ice there but was disappointed, we went on to Harrowsmith to see John Lyons who is training ~~three~~ John's Pacer for the coming Races, we found it quite cold returning we stopped at James Warrers Yorku and changed horses, the Black for Blue Bull, and came home Lovely to-day quite cold, a little snow fell during the night previous, making preparation to move to Yorku. ~~with~~ in part of James house
