

Tuesday
Apr. 10th

Looked bright in the morning but soon got grey and was snowing quite hard in the afternoon. As Mrs. Con.
Kemp "felt too tired" to entertain Prof. Kingston we had him for dinner. Charles went to the station to meet him & at a quarter to 4 went to the school with him. Mr.
Bell undertaking to take him the rest of the time, very pleasant man indeed. Clarence Halliday, who is visiting Mrs. M. A. (finished his 1st year at Kemp.) called and spent an hour with me in the afternoon, very little studying to-day. Mrs. Green & Mrs. Ryan housecleaning. Charles went to the lecture by Prof. Kingston of London University on "A Talk on the State" (Library course of Extension Lectures.) Finished "The Vehement Flame" by Margaret Deland.
