

Went out to the dove mill for
a quart of chop.
This forenoon. Found
the roads quite muddy.
After dinner went
to Mr. M. L. Seades general. Did not get to the house in time
to go with the family however.
Cannot help feeling
for the family. The husband and father
being gone. Mr. M. L.
Seades had many very good qualities. Have many pleasant remembrances of him
in my own experience.
Lewis has been working away at the cellar wall again
to day.

Took Bertha with me this morning and
drove out to church.
Bro. Goodwin preached
to us as usual.
Enjoyed the service
thoroughly. Felt that the Lord was with us to own and bless.
Had a precious time
in the class-meeting
though I felt my weakness much.
Nevertheless where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty, and our burdened souls are satisfied with the
weakly manna -
the broken body,
and the shed blood.
O, the precious gift
of God!
