

July

THURSDAY, 7

1921

Ploughing summer fallow.
Mr. Shaner & Miss Shaner here in evening. Very hot day but a slight breeze.

FRIDAY, 8

Ploughing summer fallow. Had to come up about nine as a thunder storm came on. Then chopping & choring. Ploughing in afternoon.
Showers again about five thirty. Cooler.

SATURDAY, 9

Finished ploughing summer fallow by noon. Hoed potatoes in garden. Gorged here for 2 bags of potatoes. Betty went back with them. Shepherd storms going round all day but very little rain. Heavy thunder storm about 11 P.M. We to town MEMORANDA