

April, 1927.

19 Tuesday. Very warm & sultry.
Ella was raking the plowed part of the garden today. Vernon was plowing.
Walter took 4 head of fat cattle to Elmira this forenoon and was harrowing this p.m. Walter & Ella went to a Concert at the Regent Theatre at Elmira tonight.
It was given by local talent and was very good. There was a heavy thunderstorm accompanied by winds & rain tonight.

20 Wednesday. Clear, cold & windy.
Vernon was plowing. Noah Miller visited Walter this morning and they went to Lambkey sale this p.m.
Ella did her washing.

21 Thursday. Cool & drizzly.
Walter shipped hogs at Elmira. Tonight
Walter, Ella & Vernon went to the Menomonee church at Elmira where a chorus
composed of singers from Kitchener, Waterloo & Elmira rendered an Easter Cantata entitled "Jesus Lives" which was very good.
