SAT. JULY 16, 1898

Wea.

I rose this morning and prepared the fire we picked the berries before breakfast, Jancie had to be at the hay again today they got it all in except the making, I did up the berries and a few brack currants I was busy in the evening fixing my pink waist

SUNDAY 17

Wea.

I rose this morning and made the fire and prepared breakfast. They did not go to Church this morning.
After dinner George, J. A. and I went over to Georgetown to Mrs Jos Hutchins funeral, we then went to Robt Reids, and in evening we went to the Endeavor at
