

SATURDAY, MARCH 19, 1870.

Bro. Hoobey started away from us with wife this forenoon. I have enjoyed his visit very much. I went out to Shands this morning to see him about the way which I have about birds.

Went on to Dover & took dinner at Mrs. George Dalls. Got a bag of Liverpool salt and went over after Annie Douglas to go home with me. Succeeded in my project. I have had a pleasant visit with her.

I have been unusually busy tonight. I made time and sent it in the mail, &c.

SUNDAY, MARCH 20, 1870.

I went out to the Post this morning to meeting, and took my friend Annie with me. Had a pleasant and profitable conversation with her about religion and baptism or the necessity of this being agreed on that one point.

Bro. Shullow preached after service. I went over to Rowley to dinner and got home from there in time for the meeting. Bro. Gorman preached to us from the fourth commandment: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." He did not open my eye in this matter, but exposed Sabbath day observance generally.
