

Sept. 24th - Beautiful day. Finished reading
Monday "Desolate Splendour" by Michael Sadleir & studied some. Went for a walk around our block. Dried so called at Beattie's - outrested on the verandah and called on Ted at Mauser. Wrote to Denny. Mr. Millhouse here to see Charles on business.

Sept 25th - Beautiful day. Studied a little. Ella Wood Tuesday then Son Mario & Daisy Williams came up from Itanawa. Mario went on to O. Sound to see his pals in the 147th Battalion. Daisy and Ella stayed for dinner. Had a fine old chat. Mario called for them again at half past three.
Then Mother called. I walked down to McDonald's corner with her and as they had just put Laraine on the street we went along to Church corner. Coming back I went into Mauser to rest & to see Ted. After tea Bud called to see if his grandmother had left her glasses. Florence
