

Sunday June 26, 1921.
I didn't go anywhere today.
The others went to Church.
Charlie was here during the day and was here last night.
The day was fine.

Monday June 27, 1921.
Mabel delivered mail on the whole route, I went with her on the second part.
It started raining as we came home and it rained a little last night.

Tuesday June 28, 1921.
There was a mistake made in Chatham in sending out the mail and we got Dover Centre mail
so we had to wait till the car came back from Chatham for our mail and after dinner when I got our mail sorted, it rained heavily for about an hour before I could start and I missed the club part. I delivered with horses
