

Aug. 3rd
Friday. Clare, Nell, Dory, ~~Dorothy~~, Frances and I went to Park-landing in the morning to get supplies for Nell's cottage. Taking Jack and Charles over to the Country Club and leaving them there to play golf. I sat in the drug store while they shopped. Got a flash light for Dorothy and string of beads for myself. Could not get boat started so were at dock a long time. Got a man from the boat works to come down and start it. Rained a little on the way home.
Dorothy lay in the sun and in the hammock and wrote 3 poems while we were gone "Visimary" "The Song" and "Meditative". Finished reading "The Borough Treasurer" by J. O. Fletcher. The household went down to clean Nell's cottage & Dorothy blew in the sand and I kept house. When Jack & Charles got back Dory went down, too.
Played five hundred - Clare and I against Dorothy and Charles.
