

March, 1925.

1 Sunday. Snowed all day. Began to storm tonight. Walter & Vernon went to S. School and church this morning and Walter & Lincoln went to a teacher's meeting this p.m. Lincoln, Edna, Willard, Mildred and Doris were here for tea.

2 Monday. Very cold and stormy. The new brought home 3 loads of hay from Temple's barn.

3 Tuesday. Cold and raw. The new brought home 2 loads of hay from Temple's farm also the buggy. They got a load of wood saved at Elmo King's. Noah and Charlie Miller visited us tonight.

4 Wednesday. Fair and somewhat milder. Snowflurries.

Walter butchered 2 big pigs at Lincoln Weaver's today. Jack Miller's son of Parker brought another pig to kill. Ruth & Ruby Schwandt called on Eea this p.m.
