

Shortly after 6 p.m.

June 21st - Charles had to go to Wallerham again to-day Thursday leaving at 7.30 a.m. H.A. very hot - but not quite so bad as yesterday. Finished reading "The Love-Story of Alette Breunlin" by Gilbert Frankau. Had a walk around the garden in the evening.
Mrs. Haynes brought Mrs. Patterson (who has had rheumatism) & Mrs. McKay of Pt.
Elgin in to see me and Downy.
Charles got home at 6 p.m. Mrs. Green went down town in the afternoon to fit her dress. In the evening Charles went to Mr. M. C. Halliday's meeting on Henri's Square.

June 22nd Very hot. Dentist's temperature down 1 Friday joint to-day. Aunt Carrie here in the afternoon hunting for some songs to sing at Missin Band Garden party. After-tea Duncan came back from Elephant-
