

6990 ²⁴ 18

Wednesday, September 16 17

260 DAYS PAST MONDAY

106 TO COME

Jan. 28, 1907.

Dr. John Higginson, Chicago, Ill., says:

"I received with the greatest pleasure your Bacteriological Chart and can assure you it fills a long felt want in my office. Apart from the fact that it is of peculiar scientific interest and a source of useful information to me, I can, in an instant, satisfy the inquiring minds of my patients bent on knowing the appearance of the particular germ concerned in their disease.

I assure you that your chart is as satisfactory to me from a bacteriological standpoint as your Pepto-Mangan is from a therapeutic one."

A fine day. I washed
Melba is some better, was up nearly all day. Eveline was over all the afternoon, Mr
Coyle & wife went to Mrs
Leearns funeral, that is
Mrs Dell Ackhart's mother
John was plumping, Jessie
& Mrs Palmer was out this morning
& brought home some Cognac & George
Dario took one bag Marials &