November TUESDAY, 5 (310—56) 1912

It was quite warm & nice I plonghed in the corn ground we all went up to Brothers for tea it was Mother birth day

Archie had first Marquett mare up to work
6.1917 It was a foggy day I brought Mother out it was a cold windy day we hitched the colts together for the first

WEDNESDAY, 6 (311—55)

It was quite warm. I plonghed Fred spread manure in the after noon Dirts mare hurt her leg
7. It was froze hard we sorted apples in the forenoon and pulled turnips in the afternoon Dora came up & stayed all night

THURSDAY, 7 (312—54)

It rained hard all night & dull day the flood raised down the station
8.1917 It was a nice day Fred & I sat up some corn in the forenoon I picked some apples the captain led & Baxter Alvin Brosser was down & picked some