

SUNDAY, JULY 31, 1870.

My Father, Lesly,
and I went out to Dover this morning.
He heard the Rev.
H. Craigie (Presbyterian)
preach in our Church.
I heard Rev. Mr. Cox, the Baptist Minister this afternoon. He took dinner at Mr. Hall's.

Feel very much the need of a Cow pasture
in Christ, but more especially in these truly days. It is in my heart to observe
these days need to do in them no evil.
But under present circumstances I find it impossible to keep out of it. such Counselling as I do not desire.

MONDAY, AUGUST 1, 1870.

We commenced cutting the ten-acre-
field to day. It was not all ripe, but
near enough to do it no harm. Henry helped us again to day.

The weather is becoming warm again
and to night it felt like rain.

My experience the past day in Christ
was not been the brightest, but rather
out of the darkest
of my life. I am thankful that such seasons are not without profit to the soul. If they were not now in some would they be
