

October

THURSDAY, 9

(282-83)

1919

Ploughing for a short time in morning then came on rain. Day rained hard until four.
Cleaning hen houses and chopping.
Brock & I to dance at night.
Warm evening.

FRIDAY, 10

(283-82)

Finished ploughing barley ground in morning
and started on stubble next Jack's line fence.
Ploughing until about 4.30. Then a heavy thunder and rain storm.
Brock took parcel down to express to Clara.

Very dull, damp air and warm.
Cooler to-wards night.

SATURDAY, 11

(284-81)

Ploughing next Jack's all day.
I went to night train to meet Uncle Jim,
Nellie & Lillian.
Brock to town at night.
Cool and cloudy.

6a

SUNDAY, 12

(285-80)

At home all day. Uncle Jim's here.
Fine day.