

out to the plum orchard. Dad then drove Enah and the baby down town and got back about six, while Frank and I planted a few nips sets and a few potatoes in the old garden besides making a few observations on the actions of an old bee who appeared to be blind in one eye and to weak to fly and on a pair of humming birds out in the current bushes in the old garden. Frank went down town after tea. Winnie and Olive Ward were over this afternoon to tell me that Mrs. Smythe had invited Auntie <sup>Winnie</sup> herself and me out there to dinner tomorrow but I said I could not go so maybe Frank will go instead. It has been sunny and warm all day but rained a little to night.

Sunday May 27th

Frank and I went down for Sunday school this morning but as it was after ten when we got to Main St. we went down to the lake instead and circled around in time for church. Dad, Enah and the baby came down to church. Dad expected to hear Mr. Browne preach but Mr. Johnson announced that he would preach to night. It was raining when we got out of church so Frank, Auntie and Win. didn't go to the Smythes as they had intended (they were going up on the radial) but Frank and Win. stayed down at Auntie's to dinner. Dick was over here when we got home. Dad had to go out to Charlie Tople's to see a colt. this afternoon and
