

Tuesday Went with Dorothy to dressmaker's Inch 22nd in the morning. Reppid the coat of her brown broadcloth-suit which she is going to have made into a dress. Went down town for some time & then for a short walk. (Nice day - cool) Mr. McQueen was here for tea and went away for an hour & came back later - Display seven - up.
Dorothy made a salad and tied the cake.

Wednesday In the - some letters for Julius. Went Inch 23rd down town for breakfast: Called at Cadens, Litch's, Rarnie's, Crow's, Mrs. M. A.
Halliday's, Mrs. Graywell's, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Biehn's and Mrs. Coburn's <sup>+ Mrs. Sanderson's</sup> to ask them to a tea to-morrow. Mr. McQueen called at 5 p. m. and stayed until 6.
(Selected paper for drawing room when he was here this morning.) Julius and I went to lecture by Mr. Moore on "Economic Flower Gardens, Trees and Roses." Very good and slides were good. Dorothy had Eva Nelson,
