

July, 1928

15 Sunday. Fair and cool.

We went to church & S. S. this morning where Rev. Fiddler of the United Church preached. We went up to Grandpa's Krauter and stayed for tea and brought home some black & white cherries.

16 Monday. Fine day.

Walter cut the rest of the sweet clover this afternoon. Ella was canning cherries all day. Otto & Norman Miller visited us tonight.

17 Tuesday. Hot day. The men were hoeing mangels this forenoon. Ella did the washing. This afternoon they brought in 6 loads of sweet clover. Sam Hunt helped this afternoon.

18 Wednesday. Fine day.

Walter cut some grass this morning and Vernon was hoeing. This afternoon they brought in 2 loads of sweet clover.

19 Thursday. Rained last night.

Cloudy & sultry. Walter shipped logs. Robert Marshall was buried today.
