

I got a letter from Auntie today. Bill got one from Jack Haine telling him he wanted him at the point for Friday the Monday. Of course he will go.
Dad has been cooing - a by - about since changing to not wear and Daddy took Ginger and Joe out and mowed. Bill and I cocked up. About three Harry came out. It looked very stormy and sprinkled a little so Daddy cocked up some and then thought he would cut it any way and if it rained we could shake it up. We went on cocking up and finished all that was ready about five. Bill mowed with Harry and Belle till after tea and then Daddy went out and is there yet.

(about dark). Sluby and I walked up the fence along the gully and he figured on where to plant some trees next spring. Then we came up and he sat out in front with his feet in the pear tree watching for a rig to take him home but as none passed he stayed to tea and went down with Bill afterwards.
Pick and I did the chores to night as Daddy was mowing.

Wednesday July 12th
We expected Sluby out early this morning but he did not come till late so Daddy and I went out and cocked up while Bill mowed the rest of the timothy. Sluby arrived about 9 o'clock and said he had had trouble with a sitting hen and so could not get here before. He has an awful time with ~~the~~ ^{stock} We cocked up all that was ready and then went and pitched off the load in the horse stable After dinner Sluby and I cocked up till tea time I raked up all the hay that Bill mowed this morning. After four o'clock Bill and Daddy took a load over to Martins.
Last night Bill had to go up home to get Jack Paine's stuff ready for him as it was at his house and so I went with him. We drove Ginger and Joe and started about 7.30. We took Sluby down town, and went straight out and were out of Port Pegasus before sundown.
She stopped at his father-in-law's Al. Gundy
