

April 1887

Fine day but not like April, more like Feb very, roads not thawing any, our house drizzling a little. It is so winter that the children have forgotten the usual 1st of April jokes

3 Saturday

4. A large number in church.

5 Cold and night

6. Meeting in the Hall. A Turk who was studying in the States. gave an address, he was dressed in Turkish costume. scarlet jacket embroidered with yellow braid scarlet bloomers, striped sash, scarlet turban

7 Last night there was a big row about Mrs Williamson Rebertson is on a spree and is trying to take a young girl off with him, To the tea at Willis yesterday

8 The Womans meeting was at Antis. 24. Countess Antis Hattie & Marion. Mrs Mc Lavin got $100 to help pay her way as a delegate to the Convention which meets in Toronto on Tuesday 12th. Antis bought my pillow cases and gave them to me she gave 50 cts for them. Bot 95 lbs beef, fore quarter from uncle Murdy 50 cts

9. We went to Montreal this morning. The butcher's Pomeys calf sold 42 to the mums for 1.65. Jimmie got quarters.
Pa and I were at Antis. I got 3 1/2 lbs butter

9 Sold Mrs Williamson, fore gr. and 40 cts

10 Fine day thawing and the water rose so high in some parts of the village that the roads and sidewalks are submerged, between Gubbons & Evan Dugavalls the water is over the road, and 10 month

un l
11 Wind
wood 12 Cold
13 Fine 137 of
pail
after 14 St
ca
and
15. Sold
17. Below
his arm
18. I bo
Jimm
19. got
mo
age
The
20. Not
23. Fine
24. Gar
oil.
25. Rom
sch
30. We g
Jimm
took fix