

January 6th 1892.

- Wed. 6. Snow storm from the east fall of snow. 4 to 6 inches.
Thu. 7. [First sleighing.
" " A beautiful day
Fri. 8. Another lovely day with light flurries of snow.
Sat. 9. A beautiful day with flurries of snow
Sun. 10. Lovely day Mon. 11. Mostly cloudy. Soft wind from the east, having the appearance of a January thaw.
Tue. 12. Rain and sleet early in the morning, turning mild, snow melting rapidly clearing off night and turning colder.

January 13th 1892.

- Wed. 13. Very cold, snowing till noon wind east, dark and cloudy preparing for a storm.
Wrote to President Pine River
Cheese Factory
Thu. 14. A light snow storm during the night previous, and until daylight this morning, the day cloudy raw and cold, lovely moon light, at night.
Fri. 15. A beautiful day, clear and cold.
The boys finished drawing wood, the largest pile I ever saw in the yard at once, Wrote to P. M. ^{and} C. ^{and} C.
Sat. 16. Beautiful winter's day, lovely sleighing and beautiful moonlight light.
Sun. 17. A beautiful day, but slightly hazy, turning cloudy at night, having the appearance of a storm, The last of my wild oats, commence on a new page to-morrow,