Mr. Smith better. still bothered with hay fever. Darned three pairs of Socks at noon. Charles & Mrs. Caldwell went to the baseball match at 4 p.m. I finished up the filing, got the mail ready and got home about 6:30 p.m. Quite cool after tea. Charles read some Browning to Dorothy and me. Did some memory work, some French & some History. Rose Peters and her son Carey called.

Thursday Sept. 8th Beautiful day. at office all day. Wrote to Clare. Dorothy had Ida Halladay, Vi Marr and Jean King over to play bridge in the afternoon. She is feeling better to-day but has a sty on her eye. after tea Dorothy and I went to call on Minnie Ferguson who goes away
