

forgot it in the morning. Brought it home and went to see Mrs. David Irvine who is ill (intestinal growth; will not recover) and found her lying on sofa in kitchen with Mrs. Irvine doing the work. Sent her some flowers. Went with Mrs. Leitch to Mrs. M. A. Halliday's where Fernie, Mrs. Halliday, Mrs. Leitch, Mrs. Ferguson, who came in, and I had afternoon tea. Then Mrs. Leitch and I went to see Mrs. Beattie who has been ill with La grippe. I took down a lot of work for Charles which I am to type in the morning. Wrote to Clare, Dorothy, Jamie Atkinson and Maude Halliday. Charles posted them at the station for me.

Friday
Jan. 7th - Mrs. Ryan went to Lichfield on the early train and Mrs. Green got the meals & did the work. Did the work in connection with Sale of Low Hall, Poxies, & Series of meetings, <sup>Bylaws</sup>, etc. Went down town after dinner to dress maker's. Dipped 3 copies of "The Chronicle of the Sea Gull."
