

June, 1925.

1 Monday. Sultry. Thunderstorms and a little sprinkle of rain this p.m. Ella did her washing. Aubrey plowed

2 Tuesday. Sultry. Walter was fixing fence and they put out the two colts Grace & Rex.

3 Wednesday. Very hot. We left this morning and took a joint through Elmira, St. Jacobs, Waterloo, Kitchener, Peterburg, Baden, New Hamburg, Shakespeare and Amelbee. We had dinner at Will Mohr's and tea at Theo. Wagner's and brought some cheese from Baden.

4 Thursday. Very hot. Walter shipped hogs at Elmira today. Charles Hilliard came up this p.m. and stayed for the night. Aubrey was cultivating.

5 Friday. Very hot & sultry. Aubrey was plowing. Charlie left for home this afternoon. Walter went to practice at 3 local a/c tonight
