

March, 1931

5 Thursday. Fair with cold wind. Walter killed the beef he bought at Earl's sale and spent the afternoon in Creekbank and Alma. The assessors, Noah Shoemaker called this afternoon.

6 Friday. Sunny day with strong, cold wind. Walter spent the day in Elmira and had his dinner at Norman Snyder's. Vernon took some logs to the saw mill at Floradale and had his dinner at Ezra Maurer's.

7 Saturday. Cloudy with strong east wind. Regular gale blowing by tonight. Walter took meat to his Dad's and Herman Ziegler's and went to Creekbank. Vernon took a load of chopping to Floradale.

8 Sunday. Storm from the east last night and part of today, then calmed down and snowed heavily. Worst storm of the winter. Vernon walked to Sunday school and had his dinner at Gnock Schneider's. Rev. Becker came part way then turned back on account of the drifts.
