

February, 1928.

20 Monday. Very cold & stormy.

Vernon has a very sore throat and spent the day in bed. No mail today.

21 Tuesday. Cold & somewhat stormy

Ella did her washing today. Israel Shoemaker called on Walter.

Vernon spent the day in bed.

22 Wednesday. Fair. Turning milder.

Walter went to Burnett's sale near Alma this afternoon. Vernon isn't much better than yesterday.

23 Thursday. Mild and rained

Turned cold and stormy towards night. Walter shipped hogs at Elmira although he felt sick and miserable. Vernon got up at noon and feels somewhat better.

24 Friday. Cold and very stormy.

Harvey Peist came over to do the chores and was here for supper. Walter is sick in bed now. Dr. Jim McDiubban was here this afternoon.