

28 You & not much wind & hot out doors but I did not feel the heat on the school house. I went down to clean it. Paul went to Drains after soap on the forenoon. Marjorie cracked the curtains for the east window. Emily & the young ones called & they came down to the school house I was tired enough scrubbing & mopping & cleaning the wood work then I picked two pairs of clove for the pigs

Wed 9 stiff wind from the west & the air felt like rain I went down & finished the school house on the forenoon all but oiling the seals. churned after dinner. pulled a lot of weed for the pigs picked some cucumbers they don't buy much old Mrs Beebe married today. Emily Lemmons husband died Sunday. I worked on Monday butter & put it in the crock for Milton Dell but he never came back this way. Hattie's pa & better

Paul helping them to draw oats. Marjorie (piper) got a small sponge tonight. Hattie called with a few 10. warm west wind. very sultry for the wind. sun dreadful hot. Paul went to Chippaws had 6 1/2 butter @ 18. 1/2 doz eggs @ 15. 2 1/2 sugar bush 15. gal oil 19. Tea 13. soap 10. can salmon 15.
1 1/2 nails 4 fly pad 5 lemons 15. cheese 14. Marjorie baked bread. I worked the butter then went down & cut clover for the pigs my dress full & the 1/2 bushel full & some chips out of our field. Paul helped them after they got home from Chippaws with shear oats.

Friday 11 Marjorie went to Reeds and so early as usual looked like rain all day & I sprinkled at times Arthur & Hattie waited all day until 2 o'clock for it to clear up. I churned on the forenoon after dinner I baked two pies 12 jelly tarts & cookies I was just about roasted to death & sultry

Sat 12 hot yet & of a like a storm. I swept & clean the veranda & every where there was no carpet worked the butter. Paul took Eds money home. Marjorie got home late we had a bad storm mostly wind & rain from the north. after it would go over it would come up again Hattie came & stayed on the worst of it & we were so glad we all went out to milk for it threatened to come on then the air is a little cooler. Hattie cow had 15 pigs this evening

Sun 13 very cool wind. north east. Marjorie & Paul went to church & all from the other house. quite a ban out. We had disagreeable callers then they went to the other house.

Tue 14 I churned on. Arthur & Paul went to old ferry & he got him a black eye. Well went & finished up affairs

Thu 15. I worked all the butter we had in different crocks. 19⁶⁶ 6⁸⁷ it looked so like rain she did not go to town & toward night it set on from the north east we kept the horse & calves in stall & Arthur Fred finished the oats at old ferry. Paul eye looks bad yet.
