

October 1901

16 go to Cornwall. There was no train allowed to pass over the road until the Duke's train would get to Lachine. The fast express limited got as far as Summerstown when it had to remain 3/4 of an hour, until the Duke's passed. There was no one inside on the train, a few flowers on the back part. They may have been the bouquets that were presented to the Duchess. I took dinner at Uncle Donald's, and came to the Glen when Birdie lit out school, we had a wet drive home.
