

July 2nd Went to Church in the morning. Came home sund. sick and spent the afternoon and evening in bed. as Monday was spent in the same uninteresting way it is not worthy of special notice.

July 4th
Tue.

All Tuesday afternoon Mr. Keupe very kindly invited us to go for a sail with them which invitation we accepted & at two o'clock the boat left the wharf, containing Mr. Mrs. Waller, Ethel, Emma and Phoebe Keupe, Miss Burrows, a dasky who had charge of the boat, Mr. Brickle and myself. We sailed to the other side of Dupont's Island and the gentlemen fished & Mr.
Keupe caught one fish which was thrown back into the water. In the meantime we had a couple of lunches of fruit, pineapple, oranges banana & mangoes. In the evening I went over to Keupe's while Mr. M. went over to see Mr. Arden about going to St. George. Did not get back until after ten.

July 5th We took the Paget ferry in the morning &
