

I went to the mouse about 4 p.m. - to read my play to Mr. & Mrs. Graham - approved. Charles went to prayer meeting. I ordered our Christmas Cards and did up card plates to go to Ryrie's also sewed names in a pair of hose. Boys took our gate-off. Mrs. Ryan found it & Mr. Kerkeford brought it back. A row of boys lined up in front of the house & demanded Taffy.

Nov. 1st - Cold in the morning - quite a lot of snow.
Thursday warmed up during day and most of it melted. Charles went to Walkerton at 8.30 a.m. Last day of U.F.O. trial. Got home about 6.30 p.m. Wrote to Clare. Dorothy went down town in the morning. I studied a little. Read "The Rented Car" by Edward Salisbury Field. Dorothy and I went down to Charlie's store in the afternoon. I finished "The Fighting Governor" by Charles W. Colby. Dorothy went to Antkennan's in the evening to play bridge with - Jen, Mrs. Antkennan & Mrs. Haines.
