

Friday April 28, 1922.

Kent delivered on the whole route with the Auto.

Mr English and I repaired fence along by Philipsburg &c.

I got a letter from the P.O. Department saying that John Kennel would commence delivering mail on Monday May 1st.

Mr English got hurt when the rear of the waggon broke and the horses pulled him against the front ladder of the waggon rack.

Dr Taylor dressed the wounds.

The day was very fine

~~Saturday April 29, 1922. See of 28/22~~
~~I got notice from the P.O. Inspector that my term of delivering mail would end~~

Saturday April 29, 1922.
 Kent delivered mail to the Bay and round the Townline and I delivered round by the Club.
 The day was very fine and the roads are good but rather
