May SUNDAY 18 1919

Dark Cloudy and cold around home all day Garfield came up for a while in the afternoon Eric and I went to Church in the evening

May MONDAY 19 1919

fine day. I burnt the dirt from old wood shed and picked up some of the old tins and iron around the lot. Reggie Moore drew a load away to the dump for me. I carried in some of the Kindling wood very tired and sickly tonight
