

Friday, May 15

- for dinner (at Galbraiths) and back to Woodstock by way of Stratford and after having tea at Jeanes, left for home arriving about 9.30 P.M.
- 3rd Finished threshing at Rye crofts and Hendersons. a fine rain at night.
- 4th Inyone and little folks went home in the evening.
- 5th Went to Brantford at night taking Louise, Marguerite & Don Home.
- 6th Went to Will Joe Keagies funeral in the afternoon.
- 10th Finished plowing wheat ground in centre east field.
- 11th Went to church in Paris and to Grandparents for dinner, took Jean Louise home having been visiting with us for a few days, a fine rain last night.
- 13th Finished sowing wheat in back 10 acres and sacre field field.
- 14th Went over to Clarence Lees in the afternoon to help fill silo.
- 15th Helped Watson Joe Pherson to fill his silo.
- 16th Went to Rye crofts to help fill the silo.
- 17th Helped Frank Reid to fill silo.
- 20th Started to cut corn in back field.
- 21st Tom Reynolds went to Hendersons silo filling for me.
- 22th Bartlys and Johnsons silo filling, and they started here about 11 O'clock on Fri. and finished about 1 O'clock on Sat. the 24th. The silo was heaped up about soft with boards and canvas, the fullest we had ever had it, with 2 acres of corn (well cared) left over.
- 25th Our Rally Day at S.S. Rev. Dr Adams of Paris gave a very fine talk, using a Watch as an illustration and 3 P.M. a Pod.
- 26th Finished sowing wheat about 7 acres, sowing $\frac{1}{4}$ acre plot of Imperial Amber and about 7 bus of Imp. Amber that I bought from Dr Wm Osborne on the Brantford Road.