

June

FRIDAY, 11

(163-203)

1920

Brock to Noosrefield with load of logs in forenoon and cultivating summer fallow in afternoon.
Do choring round and burning roots on summer fallow in afternoon.
Went up to Elvins in evening
fine and hot and very dry.

SATURDAY, 12

(164-202)

Brock took down tires to be set in forenoon and making a gate.
Drew a load of plank from station for Emerson Walker's new barn in afternoon.
Do cutting lawn and choring and re-planting raspberry bushes in afternoon.
Went to town at night.
Hot day and thundering at times all day.
Very heavy storms went round at night -
but scarcely any rain here.

SUNDAY, 13

(165-201)

Brock to town at night.
Fine day and a little breeze.