

Friday June 26
 26 Rained some in the forenoon. Splitting wood. Pleasant in the afternoon.
 Mrs Maaman Haskin died this AM at 10 o'clock.
 Pa is to preach her funeral sermon at the Church on Sunday at 1 o'clock.

27 Very warm split wood until about 10 o'clock when Tom and Mrs Perceval came for a visit. Just got these horse taken care of when Rev Dr Wilson drove in.
 Rosa and Mr Wilson went out to Brockville on the evening train.

Sat

He leaves his horse here until Monday.
 I went up to the burying ground with a box for Mrs Haskin. The monument for Uncle John Milburn's grave came today it costs $250 in greenbacks.
 Aimee came home from Alfronte today.
 Aunt went from last night.

28 Exceedingly warm for the kind of weather we have been having.
 Mr Slater preached his farewell sermon today.
 Mrs Haskin was buried today.
