

January, 1929.

4 Friday. Beautiful, clear, cold day. Walter went to Alma with Wesley Miller this morning. Ella Miller came here this afternoon and she and Ella Maurer pieced a comforter out of woolen patches. Earl came up for supper too and we played crokinole tonight.

5 Saturday. Raw east wind blowing. Rained hard tonight. Walter butchered a pig here today and made sausage, etc. Vernon and Harvey worked in Harvey Schmidt's bush today.

Elijah Bridge had his dinner here. Jake Schweitzer, hotel man at Cocestogo died of pneumonia last Wednesday and was buried at Cocestogo today.

6 Sunday. Cold and very stormy. No church services at Woolwich today. Sam Horst had a bloated cow and Walter helped to give her some medicine. Vernon called there this p.m. Mrs. Leon Wagner died at K. & W. Hospital tonight.
