

March, 1927.

6 Sunday. Foggy & dull.

We went to church and S. School this afternoon. Lincoln's called in after church. Charles Miller and Emerson Stange spent the evening here.

7 Monday Changeable. Lovely morning. Turned dull & cloudy and snowed heavily this afternoon.

Walter went to Elmira Fair this morning and to Floradale with a load of grain this afternoon. Ella did her washing & ironing.

8 Tuesday Stormy this morning. Very windy with snowflurries all day. Walter & Ella went to Norman Snider's sale today and had a very nice time.

9 Wednesday. Fine, sunny day. Walter was butchering at Leo Wagner's today. Vernon was drawing wood home from the bush. Callers were - Geo. Edler, Norman & Laura Miller, and Rev. E. H. Beau.
