

May, 1930.

21 Wednesday. Fair and warmer.
The men were gang plowing. Ella did the washing this morning and planted some more dahlias. Walter called at Sam. Umbach's tonight.

22 Thursday. Warm day.
The men were gang plowing. This p.m.
Walter and Ella attended the funeral of Mrs. Conrad Miller at Elmira.

Rev. Kellerman preached the funeral sermon at the church. She was buried at North Woolwich cemetery.

23 Friday. Hot and sultry.
Norman Atkinson was here all day
and started painting the house.
The men sowed another field of grain today. Ella cleaned her bedroom.
Mr. Moore called tonight.

24 Saturday. Cold & windy.
The men were picking stones. Mr. &
Mrs. Ralph Thabel of Kitchener called.
Tonight Walter & Ella called at Schneider's and Spies's. Emerson Stange visited Tom.
