JANUARY WEDNESDAY 5 (5-361) 1916

Rainy at Joe Slacks we went over to John H Slacks in the ~~afternoon~~ forenoon it poured rain all the afternoon we stayed all night

Epiphany Day (Quebec) THURSDAY 6 (6-360)

fine but very cold we started for home came up to Orval Halls and had dinner I traded Drills with him for $75.00 three oct pay. also traded sewing machines for $27.00 and there machine we came to Long Point School Cliff went home from there I came home with Ben Brown around home in the evening

JANUARY FRIDAY 7 (7-359) 1916

fine but cold Ben Brown and I fixed up a Disc Harrow in the forenoon Old Mrs Shook was buried this afternoon I was over to Henrys for a while home in the evening

SATURDAY 8 (8-358)

fine but cold I am on the sick list around house today. Ben Hendersons House where George Neddow lives was burned this afternoon around home in the evening