

April 10th + 11th. drawing out manure. and fixing big drain pulling in sand well some job. drain in bad shape a lot of sand in it.

April 12th spreading manure and started weeding peppers Aunt Effie. died in Wesleyville Pa. - this afternoon.

April 13th. still cold & windy left here at 3:10<sup>pm</sup> for Wesleyville with Hicks & John. arrived about 10:45 P.M., 173 miles.

April 14th. Raining in Wesleyville nearly all day. Effie was buried at North. East. - Some name for a town.
about 11 miles this side of Wesleyville it was pouring rain and a gale blowing when we were at the Cemetery. we did not go back. came straight on home a dandy highway right through to Buffalo about 192 miles made 75 miles from North East to 7 miles from Buffalo in 2 1/4 hours - turned very cold & windy near Buffalo. blew a hurricane all the way home. at Burlington Beach Park at the canal water blowing right across the highway. I got home before 11 P.M. after stopping at John's & Hicks made it in less than seven hours.
