

Jan. 1923

- Jan. 11 snowed this morning, went to drug store and Mrs. Pitts. A.T.
- Jan. 12 a nice winter day I swept for Mrs. Campbell. Hemmed Flossie's dress washed and pressed another dress for Flossie. A.T.
- Jan. 13 we cleaned stove pipe this morning another nice winter day. A.T.
- Jan. 14 Jason's birthday. I went to Church this evening, it was all slush in the streets. A.T.
- Jan. 15 Thawing to day I washed, cloths almost dry. A.T.
- Jan. 16 colder to day I ironed and went down town. A.T.
- Jan. 17 a cold winter day, I swept and dusted, and mending Charles has gone to ride down hill at the river this evening. A.T.
- Jan. 18 milder to day I went to see Mrs. Bentley mailed a letter to Julia. A.T.
- Jan. 19 Another nice winter day I swept and dusted for Mrs. Campbell. A.T.
- Jan. 20 a nice winter day very mild. A.T.
- Jan. 21 another mild winter day.

- Jan. 22 nice winter day I washed and went down town to get Charles a pair pants. A.T.
- Jan. 23 another nice day. ironed, swept up stairs, and went out for a little while. A.T.
- Jan. 24 cold and snowed, I washed some for Mrs. C. and went to pray meeting. A.T.
- Jan. 25 another nice day, I colored my suit to day. A.T.
- Jan. 26 swept and dusted and ironed for Mrs. Campbell.
- Jan. 27 Wesley sent wood up to day, 26 brought butter home this evening 30 lbs. A.T.
- Jan. 28 Sunday, I did not go to Church to day.
- Jan. 29 a nice day, everything is ice, I washed this morning.
- Jan. 30 went over to Mrs. Countess and helped Flossie skirt cut out a waist for Mrs. C. and dried this evening every thing all ice to day.
- Jan. 31 more ice this morning went over and helped Mrs. C.

February, 1923

- Feb. 1. a cold day. I dyed my suit black and pressed it. Started on another roll off butter this morning.