

95° in the shade
112° in the sun
June 30th. Very warm, hoeing July 1st still warm picked 115 crates strawberries send 110 to upstairs.

went in to Hamilton saw the sights of the 60 years of confederation, and midway shows. cut 1st cabbages.

July 2nd Saturday saw the old Bay Parade in Hamilton very warm.

July 3rd very cold down to 50 tonight

July 4th. Cool this a.m., 44 when I got up. picked 93 crates strawberries

July 5th Rained all morning Hoeed in the afternoon

July 6th. Picked 67 crates strawberries 16 crates cabbages

strawberries selling today in Hamilton market as high as $6.00 and 20¢ + 25¢ qt

July 7 Picked 67 x 27 strawberries.

July 8th only picked 44 x 27 strawberries nearly done -

July 9th Hoeing Rasps cut 12 crates cabbages.

July 10th Sunday had 6 visitors from the city weather fine.

July 11th. Strawberries about done - picked 67 crates today. total to date 679 crates. this year cabbage selling slow shipped only 12 crates today at $1.00 a crate

July 12. Very warm 96 in the shade picked 18 lbs Richmond cherries sold at $1.00