

May, 1930.

13 Tuesday. Fine morning.

Thunderstorms and heavy rain this afternoon. The men were working in the field until it started to rain.

14 Wednesday. Gloomy showery

day. Abe Weaver died at St. Jacobs this morning. Martin Bowman and his son Enos were here all day building a side veranda. Wesley and Esther called for some eggs tonight. Vernon went to Schwindt with Clara Schweitzer for a lesson in stock-judging.

15 Thursday. Cool and showery.

Enos Bowman and Dan Martin were working on the veranda all day. Ella cleaned the little parlor.

16 Friday. Cloudy drizzly & cold.

Enos Bowman was here all day and did some more work on the house.

Ella and Grandpa & Grandma Mauser attended the graduation exercises of the K.W. Hospital at Kilbuck. Margaret Hamel was one of the graduates. Wilfred came up for us and brought us home.
