May TUESDAY 6 1919

Lovely warm day. I moved the Post Office over from the Store to the Young House. Cleaned out the Drive house in the evening very tired tonight

May WEDNESDAY 7 1919

rained in forenoon over to Office for a while in the morning I went over and fixed up a counter for Jim Simpson. Cleared up at noon Gerald came up in afternoon I sold him the Cow and Calf for $90.00 and a little Pig. Received $10.00 on Sand. did some writing in the evening Edward Tuckerman started to fuil in the Phone in the Office tonight