

June, 1929.

17 Monday. Hot day. Ella did the washing and the men finished sowing the turnips. Bert Hilliard and Harry Smith got a horse at Norman Farris and were here for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. W. Shephard of Kitchener came up here tonight and took Mabel home with them. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gies of Waterloo visited us tonight.

18 Tuesday. Very warm. The men were cutting thistles. Ella did some hoeing and weeding in the garden. Walter drove down to Peter Schmebl's tonight.

19 Wednesday. Hot and sultry. Walter fixed the manure spreader and started drawing manure. Vernon started plowing the summer fallow.

20 Thursday. Sultry. Walter was drawing manure and Vernon plowed.
