

1920

debate - Resolved that the Pulpit is a greater Influence for Good than the Press. Affirmative - Presbyterian - Mrs Pollock and Mr. Millhouse Negative - Evangelical: Mr. Bailey and Mrs Dancer. Negative won because they summarised their points and nailed them but affirmative had best points. Judges - Mrs Evans, Mr. Davey, Mr. Young - all Methodists but Mr. Young not an impartial Judge. Bound to get back at some Presbyterians. Mrs Lockheed sang a solo and Mrs. Carter recited. Mr. Wilkins - Chairman. Remembrance shown - ending from 5:30 p.m. Got home to find our veranda and steps drifted right up. Charles expects to go to Haveron (Walkerton) on the early train. Mr. Salt of Merchants Bank gone to Quebec Province. Mr. Hill Cross - appointed manager in his place.

January 13.
Tuesday.

Blizzard so bad when we came home that Charles decided not to go to Walkerton until Wednesday. Had a good lot of snow to shovel - Shovelled all the walks and the sidewalk down to the Cement down to King's lot and dug out part of the walk there (Mild day) Shovelled