

Broton October 1887

Sat Oct 1st cloudy and showers. we were helping John W. Snarey thrash we got along very bad

Sun Oct 2nd cloudy and warm,

Mon Oct 3rd cloudy high wind. Some rain this fore noon. we were helping John W. Snarey thrash the fore part of the day. after noon picking over corn

Tue Oct 4th cloudy and wet was moving the stoves in the dining and setting rooms for winter & John & Catharine Olver came here this evening on a visit.

Wed Oct 5th cloudy. we attended the East Kent fair to day. a good show for the day.

Thu Oct 6th cloudy not doing much this fore noon after noon was husking corn.

Broton October 1887

Sat Oct 7th clear part of day and warm. we were husking corn. John Olver and wife started for home this morning.

Sun Oct 8th cloudy and some rain.

Mon Oct 9th cloudy misting rain in the fore part of the day. we were sorting corn in the fore noon. after noon I was husking Walter was away.

Tue Oct 10th cloudy and cool. I was husking corn Walter helping in the fore noon after noon he and the girls went to the Florence Fair.

Wed Oct 11th clear part of the day and windy we were husking and drawing in corn

Thu Oct 12th cloudy and cool. Bilton and I attended Richard Gibson's Sale of Short horns. bought a young Bull

Fri Oct 13th cloudy and cool. some snow I was digging potatoes ~~and~~ Walter was plowing