

SUNDAY, AUGUST 14, 1870.

According to previous arrangement I preached and I went up to Mt. Zion this morning. Bro. German
preached, but I am
ashamed to say that I did not get there in time to hear. The next mor. to hear all this sermon. I preached before the sacrament and Communion. In the usual order. We went home with
Bro. David Stealing
after meeting for services. I have not enjoyed this matter theologically as I could wish. I must say that the fault is all on my side.

MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1870.

We all bowed oats
this forenoon, but this afternoon we had to go at something else
as the oats got too dry and sudden to find
to ^{us} went to ploughing after dinner with two teams and draw
up manure with the other. The dry weather lately has made the ground pretty
hard, but we can manage to plough it.
I have been plowing
through another
season of heat and drought which has come upon me
more from my own
weakness than any thing else. I shall have more upon me.
