

and then it was most decidedly wet as we had a very heavy thunder storm and it was raining and sunning by turns all day. Frank and I didn't know whether to go down and get a load of slabs or run chances of getting wet or whether to stay home and make a post so we wound up by doing neither. Charlie Shand was in to tell us they were going to do road work next week, he had to go on over to Martin's, Dandy and Fleming's so I went around with him and asked Jack Martin if I could ship my eggs with his and he said I could. I went down town to night and had some strawberries ^(Martin's) at Miss

Wednesday June 27th

Frank and I hauled two loads of slabs to day one this morning and one this afternoon, they were really only half loads as Hawkey was charging two dollars a load and we thought we couldn't haul a big enough load for a whole one. When we came back this afternoon we made another post. Kathleen Willman and her two friends Eva Williams at Low and Miss Kirtland were over this morning, they are here for a week staying at the Moonies. Dad was up at Sam Thompson's all morning with Daisy May looking at Sam's crops and stock. Dad says he thinks he has a good crop of peas but they are not a patch on our Market.
